Are the Scouts in Action stories in Boy's Life Magazine real?

YES!!!

A TRUE STORY OF SCOUTS IN ACTION

Caleb Woody, 16, was swimming with his father at Carolina Beach in North Carolina when they saw a boy and his mother in deep water far from shore.

When the struggling swimmers called for help, Caleb and his dad swam out to rescue them.

Caleb reached the boy first and fought against the current to bring him back to his dad.

As Mr. Woody took the boy ashore, Caleb swam back out to help the boy's mother.

Caleb towed her against the current to shallower water, where his dad met them and helped her to shore. The boy and his mother were not hurt. They thanked Caleb and his dad for the rescue.

Life Scout Caleb Woody, a member of Troop 356 in Holly Springs, N.C., received an Honor Medal for his actions.
